

THE IMMACULATE HEART... THE PASSPORT TO PARADISE – Part II

I continue with some more thoughts on this subject with quotes of messages from Mother Mary to the seers in Medjugorje. To read Part I click here.

Why the will of God and not our own will? Because only love based action takes us to the immaculate heart. We always have the option, through our free will, to choose any course of action we want, but so many times we choose paths that are not in our best spiritual interest. We do this because we allow the mind to decide instead of the heart. We look for a rational reason that justifies our point of view, despite our deeper knowing that this is not really the way of God. But why should we always have to go with God's will instead of ours? Don't we have free will? The answer is simple: It is white or black; there is no grey in the Kingdom of God. Everything that God has created is perfect, and it is perfect because it is based on 100% pure love. The more you are 100% love, the less grey in your life; the less grey the less duality. If we want to act from the heart and with love, we will always do the will of God, not because He wants us to, but because that is the result of acting out of 100% pure love. Most importantly, we will be fulfilling our soul's purpose in this life: achieving the immaculate heart.

"I invite every heart so that you may respond in the way most desired by God the Father: to be consecrated to my Immaculate Heart. This not only opens your heart to me, but it opens it towards Him, which is the most important aspect. Fight with all your strength so that all souls may be touched by this Heavenly purpose. The most ardent desire of God the Father is that the multitudes on earth may join together in a sacred bond of unity. Unite like never before; unite heart with heart, so that this union of millions may resound in one single voice: A universal and ecumenical response to the call of consecration to my Immaculate Heart and to my maternal embrace." [September 4, 1993]

If everything that God has created is perfect, then the imperfections of the world and of us are not His creation, and perhaps our own creation. This is an obvious conclusion, but difficult to fully integrate. It brings us back to the fact that we are creator beings, creator race. God himself created us this way, but somewhere along the way we forgot we have these "superpower" creator abilities. We may be subconsciously creating so many undesirable things that it is hard for us to comprehend this point, much less to actually change it. But this is exactly what the new quantum physics are now teaching us. It seems we create our own reality... and most likely we really do. Unfortunately, our subconscious mind is still vastly dominant over our conscious mind (the conscious mind is only about 5% while the subconscious mind is about 95%) so we are creating things we are not even aware of. The subconscious mind stores all the programming every human being receives since the time we are born, much of which is not very good. The challenge we face now is how to change the creations we come up with in the subconscious mind. I believe that the more we move our conscious creation process from the mind to the heart the more the subconscious creation is weakened. The conscious heart is the unity of One and only creations of love can result of this. It is the coming together of oneself with God, the Son and the Holy Spirit; it is the breath of life in the Holy Spirit finally manifesting in our physical being. This is so powerful that it will override anything the subconscious is trying to do. Isn't this what happened to Mary and the Apostles in Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended to them? They were instantly changed and there was no more space in them to act on anything that was not 100% love.

"Dear children! Give thanks with me to the Most High for my presence with you. My heart is joyful watching the love and joy in the living of my messages. Many of you have responded, but I wait for, and seek, all the hearts that have fallen asleep to awaken from the sleep of unbelief. Little children, draw even closer to my Immaculate Heart so that I can lead all of you toward eternity. Thank you for having responded to my call." [June 25, 2011]

If our creations are still in the grey zone, not 100% love, it is probably because we continue creating from the mind. But now we may be able to fix it! We have all been confronted with questions like: "What do you do?" or "Who are you?" The usual answer is generally something like this: Oh, I am a teacher, manager, engineer, nurse, housewife, etc. The answer invariably grabs some aspect of the ego that the mind is comfortable handling. In other words the question tries to address aspects that the mind understands; it is a question for the ego. Now think about the following question: "What are you?" This question addresses aspects of source, love, God (at least for those of us that believe that we are more than just flesh and bones); it is a question of the heart. So perhaps a plausible response to this question would be "I am a creator being, in the image and likeness of God". Now, this makes it easier to answer the first question "What do you do?" ... "I am experiencing my creation." The moment we start to believe what we really are, that is when the balance tilts and miracles begin to happen. The more aware we are that we are not properly exercising our faculties of creator beings, the more likely it is we will be able to change. If we are not happy with what we see around ourselves, maybe our creations are still in the grey zone, because our mind still controls too much of the process. We should try shifting the creations to the heart. Try remembering every minute what we are and that we want to experience only wonderful, loving, peaceful and joyful creations from our immaculate heart.

"Dear children! May this time be for you a time of prayer and silence. Rest your body and spirit, may they be in God's love. Permit me, little children, to lead you, open your hearts to the Holy Spirit so that all the good that is in you may blossom and bear fruit one hundred fold. Begin and end the day with prayer with the heart. Thank you for having responded to my call." [July 25, 2011]

May God bless you, Alex.

Alex Gutierrez

Author of Mother Mary's Resurrection - A Businessman's Awakening Through Our Universal Mother

Winner of a Finalist Award in the Spirituality category of the 2009 Next Generation Indie Book Awards

Mother Mary's Resurrection - The Book

To learn more about Mother Mary and my personal journey go to www.mothersmarysresurrection.com

To subscribe to these free articles go to: www.mothersmarysresurrection.com

Download your PDF version of the book for just $5 at www.mothersmarysresurrection.com

Text Only Version:

THE IMMACULATE HEART... THE PASSPORT TO PARADISE – Part II

I continue with some more thoughts on this subject with quotes of messages from Mother Mary to the seers in Medjugorje. To read Part I click here.

Why the will of God and not our own will? Because only love based action takes us to the immaculate heart. We always have the option, through our free will, to choose any course of action we want, but so many times we choose paths that are not in our best spiritual interest. We do this because we allow the mind to decide instead of the heart. We look for a rational reason that justifies our point of view, despite our deeper knowing that this is not really the way of God. But why should we always have to go with God's will instead of ours? Don't we have free will? The answer is simple: It is white or black; there is no grey in the Kingdom of God. Everything that God has created is perfect, and it is perfect because it is based on 100% pure love. The more you are 100% love, the less grey in your life; the less grey the less duality. If we want to act from the heart and with love, we will always do the will of God, not because He wants us to, but because that is the result of acting out of 100% pure love. Most importantly, we will be fulfilling our soul's purpose in this life: achieving the immaculate heart.

"I invite every heart so that you may respond in the way most desired by God the Father: to be consecrated to my Immaculate Heart. This not only opens your heart to me, but it opens it towards Him, which is the most important aspect. Fight with all your strength so that all souls may be touched by this Heavenly purpose. The most ardent desire of God the Father is that the multitudes on earth may join together in a sacred bond of unity. Unite like never before; unite heart with heart, so that this union of millions may resound in one single voice: A universal and ecumenical response to the call of consecration to my Immaculate Heart and to my maternal embrace." [September 4, 1993]

If everything that God has created is perfect, then the imperfections of the world and of us are not His creation, and perhaps our own creation. This is an obvious conclusion, but difficult to fully integrate. It brings us back to the fact that we are creator beings, creator race. God himself created us this way, but somewhere along the way we forgot we have these "superpower" creator abilities. We may be subconsciously creating so many undesirable things that it is hard for us to comprehend this point, much less to actually change it. But this is exactly what the new quantum physics are now teaching us. It seems we create our own reality... and most likely we really do. Unfortunately, our subconscious mind is still vastly dominant over our conscious mind (the conscious mind is only about 5% while the subconscious mind is about 95%) so we are creating things we are not even aware of. The subconscious mind stores all the programming every human being receives since the time we are born, much of which is not very good. The challenge we face now is how to change the creations we come up with in the subconscious mind. I believe that the more we move our conscious creation process from the mind to the heart the more the subconscious creation is weakened. The conscious heart is the unity of One and only creations of love can result of this. It is the coming together of oneself with God, the Son and the Holy Spirit; it is the breath of life in the Holy Spirit finally manifesting in our physical being. This is so powerful that it will override anything the subconscious is trying to do. Isn't this what happened to Mary and the Apostles in Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended to them? They were instantly changed and there was no more space in them to act on anything that was not 100% love.

"Dear children! Give thanks with me to the Most High for my presence with you. My heart is joyful watching the love and joy in the living of my messages. Many of you have responded, but I wait for, and seek, all the hearts that have fallen asleep to awaken from the sleep of unbelief. Little children, draw even closer to my Immaculate Heart so that I can lead all of you toward eternity. Thank you for having responded to my call." [June 25, 2011]

If our creations are still in the grey zone, not 100% love, it is probably because we continue creating from the mind. But now we may be able to fix it! We have all been confronted with questions like: "What do you do?" or "Who are you?" The usual answer is generally something like this: Oh, I am a teacher, manager, engineer, nurse, housewife, etc. The answer invariably grabs some aspect of the ego that the mind is comfortable handling. In other words the question tries to address aspects that the mind understands; it is a question for the ego. Now think about the following question: "What are you?" This question addresses aspects of source, love, God (at least for those of us that believe that we are more than just flesh and bones); it is a question of the heart. So perhaps a plausible response to this question would be "I am a creator being, in the image and likeness of God". Now, this makes it easier to answer the first question "What do you do?" ... "I am experiencing my creation." The moment we start to believe what we really are, that is when the balance tilts and miracles begin to happen. The more aware we are that we are not properly exercising our faculties of creator beings, the more likely it is we will be able to change. If we are not happy with what we see around ourselves, maybe our creations are still in the grey zone, because our mind still controls too much of the process. We should try shifting the creations to the heart. Try remembering every minute what we are and that we want to experience only wonderful, loving, peaceful and joyful creations from our immaculate heart.

"Dear children! May this time be for you a time of prayer and silence. Rest your body and spirit, may they be in God's love. Permit me, little children, to lead you, open your hearts to the Holy Spirit so that all the good that is in you may blossom and bear fruit one hundred fold. Begin and end the day with prayer with the heart. Thank you for having responded to my call." [July 25, 2011]

May God bless you, Alex.

To learn more about Mother Mary go to www.mothersmarysresurrection.com

To subscribe to these free articles go to: www.mothersmarysresurrection.com

Mother Mary's Resurrection - A Businessman's Awakening Through Our Universal Mother
Winner of a Finalist Award in the Spirituality category of the 2009 Next Generation Indie Book Awards

http://www.amazon.com/Mother-Marys-Resurrection-Businessmans-Awakening/dp/0982324308/ref=ed_oe_p

www.MotherMarysResurrection.com